Quilting Classes

PINWHEEL PUZZLE

Pick some pretty pastels, buy some bold batiks, or find your favorite Fassett fabrics. Just 11 fat quarters, plus additional yardage for borders, binding, and backing, results in this gorgeous and graphic 54 x 62 Pinwheel Puzzle quilt. This is a good class for a beginner with some experience.

Instructor - Shirley Lewis

Level - Confident Beginner

Cost: $60

Sat: July 17 & 31 - 1:00-4:00pm - Session 049

Log Cabin Quilt

One more time on request!! Make the off center log cabin block in Harvest Moon or the traditional block. Enjoy making the basic log cabin block into so many different styles of quilts. Just a few important items to remember to start on the path to log cabin construction.

Instructor - Cynthia Schrader

Level - Beginner

Cost: $40

Sat: July 10 & 24 - 1:00-3:00pm - Session 050

T-Shirt Quilt

T-Shirt quilts provide an opportunity to display your memories to be enjoyed for many years. School, sports, college activities, vacation destinations, even photos transferred to fabric can all play a role in creating this great quilt. This class takes you step by step through the process of design, selection of fabrics, and construction of a quilt that someone will be sure to love.

Meets twice.

Instructor - Robin Askins

Level - Confident Beginner

Cost: $60

Sat, Sept 11 & 18 - 1:00-4:00pm - Session 051

One Block Wonder

This quilt is made from one fabric. The blocks are hexagons or octagons made by stacking 6 or 8 repeats on top of each other, cutting strips and then cutting strips into triangles. The triangles are then sewn into hexagons or octagons that end up looking like they came out of a kaleidoscope. Our one block: HEXAGONS. Meets 3 times.
